

Supplement figure

Standard testing algorithm for the Swedish regional organised prostate cancer testing (OPT) programmes⁴⁹. Men considered low-risk after MRI are notified test results by letter only, without any urology consultation. The rationale for this is to avoid making patients out of healthy men.